Rise against

Em

1. He said, Son,

Η

Have you seen the world?

A

Well, what would you say

 \mathbf{Emi}

If I said that you could?

Α

Just carry this gun

Emi

and you'll even get paid.

Η

I said, "That sounds pretty good."

Emi

Black leather boots

H

Spit-shined so bright

Α

They cut off my hair

Emi

but it looked alright

Α

We marched and we sang

Emi

We all became friends

H

As we learned how to fight

F# mi

R: A hero of war

 \mathbf{A}

Yeah that's what I'll be

 \mathbf{Emi}

And when I come home

 \mathbf{H}

They'll be damn proud of me

F# mi

I'll carry this flag

٨

To the grave if I must

Emi

Because it's flag that I love

 \mathbf{H}

And a flag that I trust

Emi

2. I kicked in the door

 \mathbf{H}

I yelled my commands

 \mathbf{A}

The children, they cried

Emi

But I got my man

 \mathbf{A}

We took him away

Emi

A bag over his face

 \mathbf{H}

From his family and his friends

 \mathbf{Emi}

They took off his clothes

 \mathbf{H}

They pissed in his hands

 \mathbf{A}

I told them to stop

 \mathbf{Emi}

But then I joined in

Α

We beat him with guns

Emi

And batons not just once

Н

But again and again

R:

\mathbf{Emi}

3. She walked

Η

through bullets and haze

\mathbf{A}

I asked her to stop

 \mathbf{Emi}

I begged her to stay

Α

But she pressed on

 \mathbf{Emi}

So I lifted my gun

H

And I fired away

 \mathbf{Emi}

The shells

\mathbf{H}

jumped through the smoke

\mathbf{A}

And into the sand

\mathbf{Emi}

That the blood now had soaked

Α

She collapsed

Emi

with a flag in her hand

Н

A flag white as snow

F# mi

4. A hero of war

\mathbf{A}

Is that what the see

E

Just medals and scars

Η

So damn proud of me

F# mi

And I brought home that flag

Α

Now it gathers dust

 \mathbf{E}

But it's a flag that I love

Н

It's the only flag I trust

Emi

R: He said, "Son,
